

12 Heilige Nachten

Horizon - I'll meet you there

Jan Duindam

Somewhere out there
'cross rivers and mountains in mysteries' veils your treasure lies only to be found through ancient wisdom and a journey of strife and sacrifice

Somewhere in here, silently waiting just to be remembered, to be joined your jewel stirs, light flows to light refr. and I know, I'll meet you there

Somewhere out there in the uncharted vastness an ancient brotherhood resides where initiates hope to be seen by the master longing for the loving touch that heals all wounds

Somewhere within at the core of each being an inherent goodness abides within which all things arise and to which everything returns

And I know I'll meet you there

Somewhere in here
somewhere out there
the inner and outer meet Time eludes into the now Now eternally

*And I know I'll meet you there
And I know, I'm with you here*
